They don't like to call themselves a real band but rather ... a storm (ein Sturm)!

A Swiss avant-garde Jazz band, the sextet was formed in 2005 based around the initiative and compositions of band leader Andreas Schaerer, a simply incredible, charismatic artist, who boasts an extraordinary voice. Schaerer, it should be remembered, is without doubt one of the finest and most original jazz singers to be found on the European scene. He was able to win over the prestigious KKL Hall (alongside the Lucerne Symphony orchestra) to such an extent that one commentator described it as "a new wind of folly blowing through vocal improvisation".
