Elina Duni / Rob Luft

LOST SHIPS - Songs of love and exile

Programme curated by Johannes Rühl

The Swiss singer, of Albanian origin and living in London, is currently one of the most interesting singers on the European scene, sitting somewhere between folk and jazz. She worked with Rob Luft, one of the rising stars of London's thriving contemporary jazz scene. Luft's guitar sound is reminiscent of West African vitality, Celtic folk and a delicate minimalism. This original and joyous sound is the perfect complement to Elina's voice. Together, they take us on a journey through timeless popular songs (some Italian, too), along with songs written by them, together, featuring contemporary issues that affect us all.

Elina Duni (Switzerland): voice, piano

Rob Luft (UK): guitar
